

The Tory Leadership Election

Life interrupted, By "Brexit "destructive.

A country ungovernable, By politicians abysmal.

The world in chaos, But only "Brexit "pervades us.

This is unsustainable, When Parliament tries the unattainable.

A second unelected Prime Minister, "Brexit" to administer.

A dozen MPs unimpressive, vying for the Post attractive.

Initially elected by Tory MPs, Only to be shelled out like peas.

Why would any MP want the job, To be defeated by the braying mob.

Only two combatants remain, To fight for "Leader" they can't sustain

Offering largesse left, right and centre, Seeking the votes of Tory members.

Both men so disillusional, Could make agreements unsuccessful.

Their Brexit fantasy, Full of inconsistencies.

Their policy on Brexit, Incoherent and chaotic.

In Kim Darroch's hour of need, Boris behaves like a broken reed

Britain faces a bleak landscape, When all Boris wants is a Trump handshake

Remarks applied to the U.S. Administration, Can easily apply to our condition.

"No Deal" seems the default option, For Democracy, total destruction.

How can we be so submissive, To allow this form of Tory injustice?

Democracy discounted, By those unaccounted.

Footnote. The terms applied to the President's Administration are as follows:-

"inept," "uniquely dysfunctional," "chaotic," and "incoherent" which is the mirror image of our own government!!
